CLOS DE CAPELUNE

CHÂTEAU
SAINT-MAUR
— CRU CLASSE —

THE STORY:

Roger Zannier took up the challenge of turning the Château Saint-Maur into one of the finest references in Provence, entrusting the fate of this Provencal gem to his son-in-law, Marc Monrose.

Situated in Cogolin, Just 10 km from Saint-Tropez, to the west of the plain that links the foothills of the impressive Maures mountain mass to the sea. In the distance, at the top of its hill, arise the ruins of Grimaud Castle. Nestled at its feet are its packed houses, and then the vines that cover the hillsides between scrubland and cork oaks.

THE WINE: The estate's "Prestige" & Special Rosé wine cuvée. A wine dedicated to gastronomy and special moments.

VINTAGE: 2015

CLASSIFICATION: Cru Classé from Provence

- Grenache                      - Mourvèdre
- Cinsault                        - Rolle

SOIL:

Acquired in 2012, an exceptional 12 hectare plot, the vines of the Clos de Capelune are on intimate terms with the sky, with the highest vine stock of the Côte de Provence appellation (449 m of altitude), where Syrah, Grenache, Cabernet-Sauvignon and Rolle are blooming with remarkable finesse.

WINEMAKING:

TASTING NOTES:

Concentrated, with an expertly mastered strength, they never forego fruit and vivacity. A very ripe bouquet with accents of exotic fruit.

Crisp, light and pure with notes of lemon, lime, strawberry, peach skin, dried pineapple, chamomile, rose petal and sea salt.

A light, fresh, elegant, feminine wine with floral notes and a fine mineral touch.
